The PBRC Distinguished Speakers Series
Presents

Arif Dirlik Ph.D.
October 17, 2005
Pauling 216  5-6 pm

“Asia Pacific Studies in an Age of Global Modernity”

A distinguished Asianist and scholar of globalization addresses the need, under conditions of global modernity, for alternative approaches to the study and teaching of the Asia Pacific. Professor Dirlik’s lecture will examine the need for such reconceptualization in the light of contradictory demands from global, regional, and place-based actors and with a view to counteracting legacies of colonialism in the region.